

Mississippi's Sixth Judicial District Attorney Race

ADAMS | AMITE | FRANKLIN | WILKINSON

2019 MISSISSIPPI
DISTRICT ATTORNEY RACE

POLLS OPEN:
TUESDAY, AUGUST 6TH
7AM - 7PM

Tuesday, August 6th, is Mississippi's 2019 primary election date. The next Sixth Judicial District Attorney will be determined based on the votes from this election.

THE ROLE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

District Attorneys have the power to decide who gets prosecuted and the severity of each prosecution. That's why voting in local elections is crucial.

MEET OUR CHOICE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Shameca Collins (D) is currently the Natchez City prosecutor and is committed to restoring integrity to the Sixth Judicial District Attorney's office.

As District Attorney, Collins (D) will:

- Stand up to police misconduct.
- Treat addiction as a medical issue.
- Ensure that the law applies equally to all residents.
- Create alternatives to incarceration for people convicted of non-violent offenses.
