

ELECTION DAY IS SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5

VOTE JASON WILLIAMS

DISTRICT ATTORNEY, ORLEANS PARISH

WHY THIS RACE MATTERS

District Attorneys have an enormous impact on Black communities. They have the power to decide who gets prosecuted and the severity of each prosecution.

JASON WILLIAMS IS THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR ORLEANS PARISH

Williams is a career defense attorney and New Orleans City Council President. He has a strong record of advocating for progressive reforms. On the City Council, Williams has helped pass measures to decriminalize marijuana possession, end bail for minor offenses, and increase funding for the Orleans Public Defenders. As District Attorney, he will continue building a more equitable justice system.

In this runoff election, Williams faces Keva Landrum. Landrum spent years working under previous District Attorneys that have pushed harmful and tough-on-crime policies in our communities for decades.

After the past 12 years of a regressive administration, we need a DA who will bring fairness back to Orleans Parish. Jason Williams is the only true progressive in this race. As an experienced defense attorney, he understands the unique problems facing our community and has proven he is committed to building a fairer justice system for all.

JASON WILLIAMS HAS PLEDGED TO:

- ✓ Disrupt the school-to-prison pipeline by establishing trauma-informed screening, assessment, and wrap-around care for vulnerable youth.
- ✓ Stand up to police misconduct, by properly screening and refusing cases that involve abusive or discriminatory police actions.
- ✓ Rebuild public trust by expanding support of victim and witness service programs.
- ✓ Increase transparency by collecting and publishing data on the DA office's charging decisions.
- ✓ Establish a dedicated unit to review and overturn wrongful convictions and unjust sentencing.
